COUNCIL CONDONES THE CRIME AS AVON'S POLL TAXPAYERS ARE . . .

MUGGED!

BRITISH TAXPAYERS IN Bristol and Avon have been fleeced of their hard-earned money by a Community Centre Association in the riot black spot of St Pauls. But what is worse is that Councillors knew that the money was being stolen but were too frightened to do anything about it in case it sparked off more riots.

For seven years the Government and the County Council has poured money into the Michael X Community Centre in the hope that the massive handouts would keep the lid on any potential riot, now auditors have found deficiencies in the Centre's books stemming back to 1984.

A leading Tory member of Avon County Council, confirmed to The FLAG that councillors continued to fund the St Paul's Centre despite the fact that they knew the money was being stolen. He said to withdraw the grant would have been "racially sensitive" and sparked off a riot.

The Michael X Centre was opened in 1984 as a reward for the Bristol rioters because they had stopped rioting. It cost the Bristol and Avon taxpayers £583,000.

But the Community Association were not happy with it claiming there were numerous faults so the Government's Urban Aid Programme put in a further £185,000 to remedy these faults.

But that wasn't enough the Community Association demanded more money and a panicky Avon Council, to keep the peace, added a further £50,000 followed by another gift of £108,163.

Such considerable sums led to a backlash from other ethnic minority communities deprived of funds and furious at the seemingly endless help being offered St Pauls. Only the British taxpayer was silent, no doubt in a state of shock as his hard-earned money was squandered in such a fashion.

In 1988 the building was renamed the Michael X Centre after the notorious Black terrorist who called on Blacks to rise up and use violence to take what they wanted. It was a very inappropriate name, for Bristol's Black Community were being given everything they needed by Avon County Council so there was no need to resort to violence

In 1989 the Community Centre, which had by this time cost £1.1 million demanded more money for fixtures and fittings. These included . . .

Ashtrays	£852
Pictures	£2,000
Plants	£500
Clocks	£300
Public Address System	£2,500

. . . so Avon County Council gave the centre another £22,529 to meet their requirements.

Every single County councillor knew that the vast sums of money they were pouring into the centre were being pilfered but to a man they were all afraid "to grasp the nettle" for fear of the consequences.

BLOW THE GAFF

Only when Bristol's first West Indian Lord Mayor Jim Williams was dumped by his community did he blow the gaff on the scandal. But William's revelations were not enough to close the centre down and Avon County Council have still earmarked a further £84,300 to keep the centre afloat simply because they know if they don't they will have a riot situation on their hands.

What a disgraceful state of affairs. The people of Bristol and Avon have been mugged by those behind the St Paul's Community Centre scandal and the Avon County Council has stood by and helped these criminals get away with it.

CANDIDATE'S COMMENT

IAN ANDERSON, the National Front Chairman and the NF Prospective Parliamentary candidate for Bristol East condemned the pathetic 'frightened rabbit' behaviour of Avon County Council.

Mr Anderson called for the Centre to be closed and all Members of the Community Association to be charged with fraud.

● BRITAIN'S No.1 RIOT BLACK-SPOT: Councillors threw money at the St Paul's Community as a bribe to stop riots.

TRAITORS!

BRITISH BUSINESSMEN hold themselves, their country and their people in contempt. That was the conclusion emerging from a recent survey of the attitudes of 1,500 businessmen around the world published by the independent Swiss research organisation the World Economic Forum.

The British businessmen surveyed felt that British workers were lacking in skills and motivation, stupider and idler even than the Turks or Irish. They also despised their own colleagues, believing that even Greek, Portuguese or Spanish executives were likely to beat Britons to new business.

They also thought that the goods they were selling were rubbish, rating British goods inferior in quality to those of most of Europe.

Despising their own country, the British businessmen all worshipped at the feet of the Asiatic ants. Japan was rated top in almost everything, closely followed by Korea and rising stars, Thailand, Malaysia and Indonesia. The only White country to be held in anything other than contempt being Germany.

With such negativistic, self-despising and unpatriotic attitudes rife amongst those running it, is it any wonder that British industry continues to slide steadily down the drain?

The time has come to dump these defeatists and take British industry out of the hands of this fifth column who are prepared to stab our country in the back. British industry should be put in the hands of British workers. The very people who get their hands dirty doing the real work that made our economy great in the first place.

BULLDOZERS RAVAGE BEECHAM'S LAST REST!

BY STEVE BRADY

SIR THOMAS BEECHAM, Britain's most celebrated conductor, is to be exhumed and re-buried at his widow's request because a coloured immigrant has vandalised the graveyard where he lies.

Sir Thomas was buried in 1961 at Brookwood cemetery, near Woking in Surrey, because, as his wife put it, "He wanted to be in the heart of nature, among birds and flowers, and Brookwood seemed an idyllic spot".

Now, according to Lady Beecham, "It's like a building site". Bulldozers roar around Beecham's grave, that of British artist John Singer Sargent nearby, and those of many others of our war dead buried there. Trees are ripped up and rubble dumped everywhere.

The author of this desecration is a Turkish immigrant, Ramadan Guney, who bought the graveyard in 1985 to turn it into Britain's biggest Islamic cemetery. Already the alien Moslem tombstones are invading the site - immigrant dead disturbing our dead as alive they disturbed our living.

Last December Guney listed the graveyard prominently among his assets when he put up £1 million bail for his fellow immigrant Turk, dubious Polly Peck City shark Asil Nadir, a distant relative. For both Guney and Nadir, Britain is the second island their people have invaded; both come from the Turk-invaded Hellenic island of Cyprus.

So horrendous have been this Turk's ravages of the last resting place of our brave and distinguished dead that even the Tory-led Surrey County Council has ordered him to call off his bulldozers. The immigrant predictably, whines of 'racism' "I have been victimised by the prejudice of local people and the council".

One wonders what Sir Thomas Beecham and John Singer Sargent would think if they woke from their rudely violated rest to see what Ramadan Guney and millions of his ilk had done to the British culture they so lovingly helped craft.

As for our war dead whose long sleeping, in the soil of the Motherland they died to save, has been so crassly disturbed, there can be little doubt upon whom they would turn their guns were they to rise again. Guns blooded once before in the defence of our homeland from foreign invaders . .

MANX Bans Bandits

THE ISLE of Man Parliament refused to bend over for the shirtlifting lobby last month and kicked out proposals to legalise homosexuality.

It's a brave decision which will put them on a collision course with Britain and Europe. A Manx MP was pleased to tell 'The FLAG' that the community had been founded on the principles of the family and that is the way all the islanders wanted it to stay.

They Still Keep Flooding into Great Britain!

THE NUMBER of immigrants accepted for settlement in Britain increased by 2,300 last year to a total of 52,000.

The number of illegal immigrants that were actually caught trying to enter the country was 3,290 - a figure described by a Customs official as, "A drop in the ocean".

National Front Invited to Keele University

NATIONAL FRONT chairman, Ian Anderson has been invited to address students at Keele University in Staffordshire.

The invitation is just one of many that are coming in for senior NF officials from the country's higher education establishments, and is a clear sign that British students are starting to take the National Front seriously and want to hear more about National Front policies.

● IAN ANDERSON: NF Chairman

The invitation to Keele comes after increasing interest shown by the students there. 'The FLAG' is on display in the University Library, surviving an attempt by Young Socialists to get it removed, and numerous under-graduates have joined the party within the last 12 months.

The President of the Debating Society, in his letter to Mr Anderson, says that although there will be the predictable counter-demonstration, the Police have been informed of the details of the meeting and that he sees no real problems.

Bulgaria Sends Them Back!

BULGARIA HAS the right idea when it comes to dealing with unwanted coloured immigrants that have swarmed into their country since their frontiers were opened - they are sending them all back home.

The country has a rising unemployment problem and their Parliament decided that the Bulgarian people must come first in jobs, housing and welfare which meant it was back to Asian for 17,000 Vietnamese immigrants who had just recently arrived.

India Lynches its Race Traitors!

INDIANS YET again proved themselves to be the world's most violent racialists when local villagers lynched a 15 year-old girl and two young men for defying their caste segregation code by spending time together.

The three were hanged in Mehrana, 100 miles south of Delhi, after being tried at a village court.

Tories Fiddle the Figures but the Number Out of Work Still Keeps on Rising!

AS PREDICTED in the March issue of The FLAG, unemployment has now topped the two million mark, and the rate at which it is rising is rising itself. Meanwhile all the Government can do is to get itself caught trying to fiddle the jobless figures to whitewash the disaster.

As the dole queues lengthen, even the once prosperous South-East is no longer immune. Of 86,000 people who lost their jobs in February this year alone, 35,200, nearly half, were in the South-East.

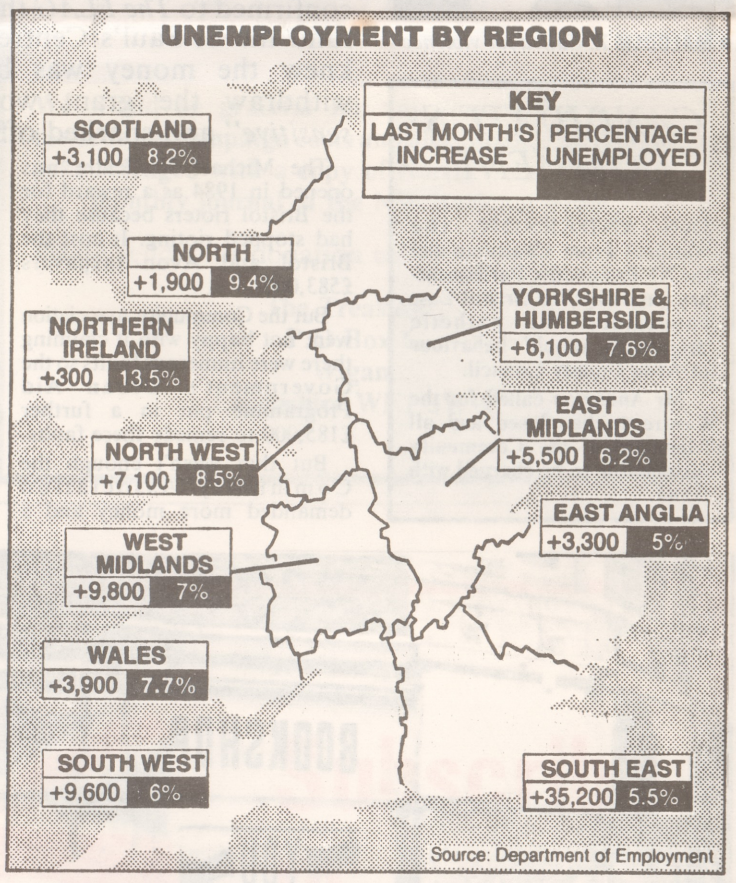
The rate at which unemployment is rising itself doubled in the West Midlands, Yorkshire and 'Humberside', the North and Wales during February.

But in reality the situation is even worse with the Government caught concealing the plight of 400,000 unemployed people by leaving them off the unemployed total. Figures from the 1990 Labour Force Survey and the 1989 Census of Employment revealed the 400,000 on the dole which the Government had been trying 'to lose' for some months. They also revealed that the Government had not been telling the truth for several months when they claimed the numbers in work were continuing to rise.

In fact the number in work peaked at 26,889,000 last June and has been falling, as unemployment rose, ever since. This was pointed out by the Employers' Organisation the CBI, normally a loyal Tory supporter, in the face of Government denials. The Government has now revised its unemployment figures upwards at a time when unemployment continues to rise faster in Britain than in any other country in the Common Market.

So much for the Tories' Economic Miracle, but what of the opposition, all they can offer is a return to the stagflation and strikes of the Seventies when they were in power last.

It will take much more radical medicine to reverse the hundred year decline of the British economy and free our people from the shadow of the dole queue - It will take the policies of a National Front Government.



ECONOMISTS AGREE: NF IS RIGHT!

BRITISH MANUFACTURING industry once outstripped the output of the rest of the planet put together, but now figures published last month highlight how far it has slipped since. The Workshop of the World is closing down!

The figures, the latest from the Government's Department of Employment, show employment in our manufacturing industry has fallen below 5 million for the first time on record. When the Department started compiling these figures in 1959, 7,902,000 Britons worked in manufacturing. Today only 4,945,000 do so.

The decline in the manufacturing sector, the productive part of our economy which actually makes real things, goes back long before 1959. It has been going on for a century or more, while the service sector, the parasitic part of the economy which does not actually produce anything, has grown.

Yuppies shuffling stocks and shares, insurance broking, and serving in MacDonalds have been held up as the wave of Britain's economic future. Only the National Front, for almost a quarter of a century, has again and again sounded the alarm at the decaying base of our national economy.

But now more thoughtful economists are coming to share the NF's concern, along with an all-party House of Lords Committee which in early April belatedly echoed the NF's long-standing concern about the state of British Manufacturing Industry. The economists, and the Lords they advised, are realising that what the National Front has said all along is true, that the success of any national economy rests in the final analysis on its productive base, manufacturing, raw materials, energy production and agriculture.

The National Front would revitalise Britain's manufacturing industry. We would keep out cheap Asiatic imports which have ruined it. We would kick out the foreign multi-national companies and the City sharks which have preyed on and asset-stripped British industry. The National Front would put Britain's manufacturing industry back in the hands of those who have the biggest stake in wanting to see it succeed and in being able by their own efforts to see that it it does - the workforce of the plant themselves.

The National Front would channel massive investment, from the State, from pension funds, from private savers, into rebuilding a manufacturing sector assured, thanks to firm import controls, of an adequate home market. It is exactly how the Japanese protected, nurtured and built up their manufacturing sector and for Britain it would once again mean The Workshop of the World is open for business!

Brady Speaks in Hull and Derby

THE WEEKEND of April 12th-14th was a busy one for NF deputy Chairman Steve Brady. On Friday 12th he was in Derby, addressing some 25 members of the local Branch. Unlike the March meeting, reported in our last issue, this meeting went off without any opposition. It was held in a select venue beside the River Derwent, booked by capable Derby secretary Rob Rainsford.

The next day saw Steve in Hull, speaking at the meeting of the NF branch there. Again competent local organisation by key committee figure Nick Walsh led to a successful meeting in a pleasant city centre venue. The solid attendance included a very welcome ladies' contingent and also four activists from the embryo Grimsby unit, which is just getting off the ground.

An enjoyable social evening rounded off a day of achievement in a city which hitherto has had a reputation as a Red stronghold.

They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.

WE REMEMBER Albert Mariner, a pensioner who fought for Britain in the last war, and a committed member of the National Front.

Eight years ago on May 4th 1983, Albert died from the injuries he received after being attacked by a mob of Labour Party thugs when trying to attend a National Front Election Meeting in Tottenham. Albert's memory is always with us, his dedication and sacrifice a shining example to us all.

TORBAY CAMPAIGN IN FULL SWING

ON SATURDAY 20th April Bob Jones, the National Front's parliamentary candidate for Torbay spent a day in his constituency meeting members of the public and explaining the finer points of NF policy to them.

The Poll Tax was the key issue and local NF activists handed out a special leaflet 'The Poll Tax Fiasco and You, explaining the NF's policy of a local income tax. The Press were on hand to record the proceedings and Bob gave a number of interviews.

NF Torbay agent, Mark Cotterill, has been doing an excellent job preparing for the election. Already letters to overseas voters have been sent out, envelopes have been bought and stamped-up and details of supplementary leafletting outlined. As well as all this Bob Jones's campaign has been getting very fair coverage in the local papers.

Bob Jones attended a Torbay committee meeting in Torquay on the Friday evening and spoke at a members' meeting in Paignton on the Saturday evening. But it wasn't all hard work with Sunday spent touring the constituency visiting the places of interest.

FRONT SEE OFF LABOUR THUGS

THERE WERE smiles and waves from the people of Hemel Hempstead as the NF loudspeaker van cruised through the town on Saturday 13th April. The van was bedecked with Union Jack flags and election posters with the public address system playing patriotic music.

As the van spread the NF message, other members sold papers and handed out leaflets advertising the afternoon's public meeting, 50 copies of The FLAG being sold before lunchtime. After a pleasant drink the 30 or so NF members split up into two groups and distributed the main election address door-to-door in Chaulden Ward where John McAuley is the NF candidate.

At 3.30pm the election meeting was held at Chaulden Junior School and, despite a picket of 30 Labour Party supporters, attracted the interest of a dozen or so members of the public who came in to see what the NF had to say.

With the meeting well under way 25 Labour thugs tried to disrupt it but were competently dealt with by the NF stewards on duty.

Speeches were given by Dean Thomas, the meeting chairman, John McAuley, the candidate, NF Activities Organiser, John Hill, and NF Chairman Ian Anderson. A collection raised £95.00 towards the cost of the election.

The day was a great victory for freedom of speech with the National Front standing firm in defence of its democratic rights and refusing to be intimidated by blatant Labour Party thuggery. With nearly 3,000 voters getting a National Front leaflet through their door and thousands more hearing the NF message it was all-in-all a very successful day for the Party.

Brussels Bashes Baxi

HUNDREDS OF jobs at one of Britain's best known heating firms, Baxi, are being threatened because of new regulations being introduced in Brussels.

The crisis has come about because of an EEC proposal on efficiency requirements for new hot boilers which would make many British systems obsolete in favour of types which satisfy Euro standards.

This is a disaster for Baxi as major production has been centred on their cast-iron back boilers, and other British firms could also fall foul of the new Euro-law which could cost up to 8,000 jobs in the British heating industry.

Brainwashing Our Children!

NO-ONE CAN say childhood in Britain today isn't a good preparation for adult-life. Today's British children play with imported toys made by foreign multi-nationals, they watch TV which brainwashes them with race-mixing cosmopolitan American rubbish and now their picture-books depict life in the Euro-blender.

British toymakers have all been taken over by foreign multinationals. Matchbox is owned by a US-Hong Kong consortium. Mecccano, Airfix and Tri-ang are owned by the French. The biggest share of the British toy market, 6% is held by the Danish firm Lego. 68% of all toys sold in Britain are imported. Most of the rest may be made in Britain, but US multi-nationals own the factories.

Where the TV programmes our children watch are not American extended adverts for expensive foreign toys like the notorious Teenage Mutant Turtles, they are multi-racialist propaganda of the crudest type. BBC childrens' programmes are frequently introduced by Africans and West Indians, Blue Peter, once a bastion of wholesomeness in a rising sea of decadence, now has a theme tune played by a West Indian steel band whilst Ulster rose Caron Keating was replaced as a presenter of Caribbean origin. This follows the retirement of Biddy Baxter, Editor for over 20 yeas, and her replacement by the cosmopolitan Louis Bronze.

Finally, childrens' books rooted in national culture, such as our own Peter Rabbit and the Wind in the Willows, France's Asterix the Gaul and Belgium's Tintin, have been replaced with rootless, bland Euro-pap. Such as the Eric and Maria picture book series published by Walker Books, Britain's leading independent childrens' book publisher. Eric and Maria, their very names carefully chosen to avoid national identification, wander along High Streets where cars drive on the right and shops selling "Suesigkeiten" and "Meubles" are interspersed with "Scotts" and "Snodgrass & Co." past a French war memorial and through a countryside littered with vaguely French farmhouses.

Walker Books spokesperson Emma Barkes explains, "Most of our books are co-editions targeted at worldwide sales. We try not to make the illustrations too aggressively English".

And, no doubt, to make our children not too aggressively English too. Turning them instead into good Euro-clones, compliant produce-and-consume units, good multi-national market fodder, stripped of every identity save that defined for them by the admen of the global media machine.

Oh Brave New World . . .

Britain's Best

ONE OF Britain's last remaining major toy companies, Hornby, announced a 10% increase in profits for 1990.

Hornby have been delighting generations of model railway enthusiasts for many years now and their success in that market as well as for other toys, models and sports boats was the reason they could announce a £3.82 million profit on a turnover of nearly £32 million.

GAY BRUMMIES

SCHOOL CHILDREN in Birmingham are being put at risk by the Labour-run City Council who are encouraging homosexuals to take up positions in the city's schools.

In the Labour Party Manifesto published at the end of April emphasis was placed on encouraging homsexuality in Birmingham with pledges of Poll Tax cash to support homosexual projects and needs in the city. It said:

"Labour recognises the need which gays in Birmingham have for non-commercial facilities which provide support, advice and safe meeting places".

The document pointed out that homosexuals were already employed in Birmingham schools, colleges and youth clubs, and that . . "Labour will advertise teaching posts in the gay community press."

With abuse of pupils in schools by homosexual teachers on the increase and the ever-present threat of AIDS from these sick people, Labour's plans for Birmingham are verging on insanity.

● SHORTS: It's too risky to employ Republicans.

SHORTS: Loyal Britons Only!

THE IRA planted their sixth and seventh bombs in two years inside the Shorts Aircraft Factory in East Belfast on 16th April. One of the bombs exploded in the technical drawing office, the other was defused. As with the last bomb at Shorts six weeks earlier, no one has been hurt. Yet.

The spate of bombs at this sensitive plant, which also designs missiles for the British Armed Forces, started after the company was ordered by the Northern Ireland Office to adopt an "anti-discrimination policy" and hire staff from the Republican community in Ulster. Previously the company was overwhelmingly Loyalist and no bombs were ever planted inside it.

Clearly this policy, aimed at currying favour with interfering IRA supporters in the US Congress, must be reversed. Only loyal Britons should be allowed on the premises of a British strategic defence plant. It is, after all, better to discriminate than to die.

IRISH POLICE AID THE IRA

THE IRISH POLICE are supplying the IRA with lists of British people to be murdered, the Dublin regime admitted on April 17th. This followed the production by the Provo murder gang of an official Irish police file on Mr. Ian Sproule of Castlederg, Co. Tyrone.

The official Irish file, without the slightest evidence, alleged Mr. Sproule was in the Ulster Volunteer Force. This piece of unsubstantiated gossip was enough for the Provoes and they murdered the 23-year-old Briton on April 13th.

It is thought the IRA has a copy of the entire Irish police bulletin, containing hundreds of names and addresses of British people, from which the page on Mr. Sproule was taken. In view of the comic-opera incompetence, corruption and ineptitude of the Dublin Police, the Garda Siochana, there can be little doubt that Dublin has given the IRA a hit-list packed with wholly innocent Britons for them to murder.

Dublin was first in line to whine and moan when British security force lists of notorious and certainly genuine IRA terrorists were leaked to British patriots. A strange silence has now befallen the banks of the Liffey! Even the British Labour Party has demanded the Irish Premier launch a full enquiry into collusion between the Dublin security forces and the Provoes.

But as said premier, Charles Haughey, is himself guilty of far more extensive collusion with the Provoes than handing over a hit list - he ran guns to help set them up in 1970 - there is little point holding your breath waiting for action on this. Nor is there any reason for surprise. The Dublin state in general, and its ruling Fianna Fail party in particular, were themselves founded by a bunch of terrorists, murderers and traitors. No wonder they are still helping the IRA today. Birds of a feather . . .

SKIN COLOUR QUALIFICATION

BRITISH RAIL has agreed to change the way it tests the intelligence and aptitude of would-be train drivers because Asian immigrants keep failing the test.

Eight Asians, supported and funded by the anti-British Community Relations Executive, brought BR up before an Industrial Tribunal for failing them in an engine-driver aptitude test.

The tests, introduced in 1988, examines mathematical, engineering and English knowledge, physical co-ordination, personality and general intelligence. Most Asians fail the intelligence and English tests. The CRE admitted that Whites do twice as well as Asians in these tests. As a result only two of the 253 drivers at Paddington are Asian.

The conclusion should be that it would be safe for everyone if the Asians were kept away from the controls of a train, but that's not what has happened. British Rail have been hounded into changing their tests to let more Asians pass. A spokesman for the Race Board Gestapo gloated:

"The Commission will be working closely with British Rail to get their selection criteria right and put in train measures to remedy the under representation of ethnic minority staff at driver grades and elsewhere throughout the organisation".

And if that means people being put behind the controls of a train because of the colour of their skin rather than their ability to drive it, too bad. Even if that in turn leads to accidents and people dying.

What an appalling state of affairs this country has sunk to.

WHAT THEIR PAPERS SAY!

THE NATIONAL Front has received extensive press coverage in the last few weeks, the latest contribution coming from our arch-enemy 'The Guardian'. In the piece by Duncan Campbell, a journalist who doesn't bow when the establishment whip is cracked, the National Front are given a moderately fair and informed review

OLDEST and best known of far right groups. Led by Ian Anderson and Steven Brady, with the former professing an electoral approach and the latter wanting more militancy in the party.

Main areas of support are in West Yorkshire, the West Midlands, and south-west England, particularly Exeter. Linked with loyalist organisations.

The NF reached its peak in the late seventies when it achieved more than 100,000 votes at local elections.

It subsequently suffered a series of splinters amidst personal and ideological recriminations. The last of these was in 1986. THe NF now says it will run around seven candidates in May's local elections and 60 in the general election, which will entitle it to a party political broadcast.

It has just launched a youth paper, True Brit, which joins three other publications — Vanguard, the theoretical magazine; Lionheart, described as "slightly more down market" and its main publication, The Flag, (current issue includes 'The white race: an endangered species.')

Chairman Ian Anderson claims membership is growing. It is now around 3,000. It claims 30 branches countrywide. Fees are £10 a year. It has recently been left £30,000 which will probably go into funding a bookshop in Newham, east London.

Some members are opposed to running so many electoral candidates as they fear a serious mauling which will make them look ludicrous. A further split is predicted after the election, with the British National Party already wooing members and making moves to take over Vanguard.

MORE PUTTY MEDALS

by Ted Budden

MARGARET THATCHER, the proud possessor of America's Freedom Medal, has herself been scattering medals around to all and sundry just recently. In fact there is at present a positive frenzy of pinning medals on every available chest and breast in honour of the heroic destruction of Third World Iraq but there is no instance so bizarre as that over which Madam Thatcher presided last month.

This was the presentation of the 'Daily Star' Gold Star bravery awards to the wives of US General Norman Schwartzkopf and the British Lt-General Sir Peter de la Billiere.

Now I suppose that it might be said that being married to Stormin' Norman involves dedication and self-sacrifice above and beyond the call of duty but I am at a loss to account for the supreme act of courage that qualified Lady de la Billiere for the award. After all, Sir Peter seems such a nice, quiet-spoken, easy-going sort of chap; in fact the sort of batman that any American General would be proud of.

Since Sir Peter has just received a pat on the head and a medal from Stormin' Norman himself, I dare say that it was held to be an offence under the Sex Discrimination Act if his wife didn't get one as well.

And what an honour it is! Just fancy, the Gold Star of the 'Daily Star', the Express Newspapers Group's soft-porn rival to 'The Sun'; that British flagship of Margaret Thatcher's friend and confidant Rupert Murdoch, Australian-cum American-cum anything else convenient-international filth-monger.

I find it strange that honourable ladies should permit themselves to be defiled by a medal from the 'Daily Star'. Perhaps they regard it as a penance. After all, the 'Daily Star' Gold Star has just that fine touch of tattiness that the whole sorry Iraq adventure demands.

● SOON JUST A MEMORY: The Council for the Protection of Rural England fears that rivers will soon just dry up leaving barren beds under a chemical-soaked grain prairie.

Greed Pollutes Britain's Rivers

THE DESTRUCTION OF the rivers in which they swim threatens to wipe out many of Britain's trout and salmon. Some of Britain's most famous fly-fishing rivers are under threat, a threat which, in the final analysis, stems from greed and the Capitalist system which serves it.

The threat is twofold. Directly, from the draining of the water away from the rivers by ever more rapacious industry. And indirectly, from the drying out of the remaining river water and its contamination by algae due to heat and drought caused by the Greenhouse Effect, itself a product of industrial pollution.

Most at risk are the clear waters of the chalk streams of Southern England, the Test, the Itchen, the Hampshire Avon. Rivers whose pure waters provide world-famous fly fishing. Already the Darent in Kent and the Pang in Berkshire have dried up in parts.

DRAINING

Water companies, newly privatised into the hands of greed-crazed plutocrats, are draining the chalk aquifers, the water-bearing rocks, from which the rivers draw their water, without regard for the fate of the chalk streams, the fish, or indeed anything but their profits.

Meanwhile three dry winters and two hot summers in succession have dried the streams further. In the greenhouse-heated summers, the hottest in British recorded history, algae growths, encouraged by fertiliser runoffs from agri-business combines, have killed off the waterweeds such as water crowfoot which harbour the rich insect life the game fish feed upon.

If this goes on, warned the British Field Sports Society, England's chalk streams could cease to support game fish. The Council for the Protection of Rural England fears the rivers will cease to run altogether. Leaving dry beds under chemical-soaked grain prairies where once majestic fish swam in pure clear English water.

A fate that draws nearer by the day as Britain's 37 Capitalist water companies drain our nation dry in the single-minded thirst for profit. The National Rivers Authority forecasts that in the next twenty years their extraction will exceed supply to such an extent as to cause serious water shortages and dried-up rivers, especially in the South-East.

Our game fisheries will not be all we will lose if that happens. Along with her quiet rustic lanes and wildlife-rich hedgerows, the English countryside will be raped

● FRONTLINE: Rivers in the face the greatest threat of extinction.

Water weeds such as Crowfoot which harbour the rich insect life have been killed off by fertilisers.

of the tranquil flow of clear, cool rivers and streams. Capitalism will create a desert and all in the quest for profit.

WIDER VISION

This need not be. Nationally, the supply of water, like many other strategic areas of the economy thrown to the City jackals by the Tories, must be taken into the control of people who serve a higher and a wider vision of the good of the country and its environment. It must be taken away from the narrow moneygrubbing of the plutocrats.

Internationally, the peoples of the world together must confront and destroy Capitalism before it lays waste the living Earth. We in the National Front are the vanguard of that fight in this country. A fight to save not just our Race but our water, our soil and our sky from the plutocratic poison and destruction through greed.

Such a Simple Option

THE DECISION TO prosecute the Cheltenham Tory, Bill Galbraith for inciting racial hatred is good news for all those patriots who want to see Britain's multi-racial society collapse.

The Department of Public Prosecutions has ensured by its actions that the issue of Race is in the public eye yet again. This time, however, the sympathy factor - that all important emotion that won the day for the town's West Indian candidate at the beginning of the year - will be for the outspoken Galbraith.

To call a Black man "A Bloody Nigger" is unkind, but by no stretch of the imagination can it be construed to incite anyone to racial hatred. By prosecuting Galbraith the Attorney-General has made the former villain into the under-dog and as such can guarantee him the support of a large section of the community.

Even more so because of the fact that the Director of Public Prosecutions refused to act on other 'incitements' in the wake of the Salman Rushdie affair and the Gulf War.

In the former case Moslems were openly calling for the author of Satanic Verses to be hunted down and killed. Marchers brazenly paraded through Bradford carrying banners demanding his death. Moslem leaders explained solemnly how only the death sentence would suffice.

As the Gulf War began, Omar Bakri Mohammed, leader of the International Islamic Foundation called for the death of John Major with the words "I pray to God for someone to kill him".

Yet the DPP has ruled that no action is to be taken in either case. How can the British people possibly square this with the concept of equal justice for all? Of Course, they can't.

In Britain today there is one law for the indigenous population and another for the privileged class of immigrant settlers . It is an imbalance that WILL lead to hatred between races as injustice and favouritism breeds anger and resentment.

No society will be able to survive such turmoil and the British people will be faced with a simple option - if you want to maintain British culture, British tradition and a British way of life, immigrants resident in Britain will have to be returned to their country of origin. It's such a simple option and a policy the National Front has been advocating for the last 24 years!

Orania - A Town of Hope

EVERY TRUE Nationalist is a supporter of apartheid - the separate development of the races. But that doesn't mean to say that every true Nationalist is a supporter of South Africa. For South Africa hasn't operated a system apartheid for the last 30 years, they've had a system of the exploitation, using black labour to do the country's dirty work.

Now that is changing. Supporters of apartheid in South Africa are setting up their own society in a ghost town called Orania on the banks of the Orange River. It's a town for Afrikaaners only, where there is no exploitation of black labour because their are no blacks to exploit.

It's a town of hope for many Whites in South Africa for when majority rule comes to that troubled country, it is hoped that an independent Orania State will offer some shelter from the ensuing storm.

Back to the Jungle

WITCHCRAFT IS alive and well among South Africa's Black population. Every village and township has its Inyanga, the witch doctor, selling magic potions and totems, muti, often made of the vilest ingredients - organs from ritual murder victims being especially potent.

Better-off Africans live in dread of being 'sniffed-out' as witches by the Inyanga, since this is followed by a possible lynching and the certain looting of their belongings and the burning of their home by a rampaging mob.

In the Sotho tribal homeland of Lebowa, in the Transvaal, for example, local police have recorded over 320 cases of attacks on suspected witches in the last 12 months, ten ending in murder. Currently the local constabulary are sheltering 50 families driven from their homes by witchfinders and the numbers are rising when every thunder-storm brings further witch-hunts as the natives believe witches control the lightning and unleash it on the heads and herds of their enemies.

Far from being a dying relic of savagery, this sort of thing is on the increase. The African National Congress and Pan-African Congress regularly use Inyangas to sniff out witchcraft in their political opponents. Beneath a thin veneer of sub-Marxist sophistication, most of the comrades themselves believe in tribal superstition and witchcraft.

On a number of occasions searches of ANC members before they entered the dock, in the days when these terrorists were brought to trial in South Africa, revealed them frantically clutching their muti totems-pickled human private parts being a favourite.

South African police figures show a steady rise in witch-burnings, human sacrifices and crimes related to superstition. As F.W. de Klerk "moves towards a New South Africa" it is emerging ever more clearly that the African majority to whom he proposes to give the vote are sliding more and more towards a very old South Africa . . . the jungle!

THE ASIAN Community have been consulted by the Bradford and Northern Housing Association to ensure that housing on Ormerod Street, Accrington, is sympathetic to their needs.

Mr. David Barrow, the Regional Manager of BNHA said "The preferences in many cases are the same as those for the host community but there are a few exceptions".

The Asians' requests include toilets that do not face the holy city of Mecca, high fencing for privacy, a downstairs toilet and hallways so that front doors do not lead directly into the living room. Furthermore this £2 million, 48 x 4 bedroomed housing scheme will be given Asian street names.

Mr Barrow justifies his grovelling to the Asian community by stating that Britain is the host community and the Asians are our guests. What he seems to have forgotten is that they are UNINVITED guests.

MAUREEN BATESON, deputy leader of Blackburn Council and Councillor for Cathedral Ward for the last eight years, has been de-selected by her ward party in favour of Salas Raja Kianai.

Council leader, Peter Greenwood, who himself narrowly won a similar battle last year, revealed that Ms Bateson's meeting was packed with new party members many of whom had never attended Party meetings before. "I am still in a state of disbelief" he said, "Two-thirds of the people at the meeting were Asian and many had never been seen before.".

They were Labour Party members so what does it matter if two-thirds did happen to be Asian? Normally the Labour Party says that mention of Race is irrelevant and 'racist', but now that they are on the receiving end, it suddenly becomes acceptable to mention.

It seems that the Labour Party is all in favour of Asian participation except, that is, when it threatens their positions. They don't give a damn when its the ordinary British people losing out on homes, jobs and welfare because of Asian influence.

More Labour Councillors now face de-selection on the grounds that they are not the right colour. They are now having to drink from the chalice they have poisoned.

HYNDBURN COUNCIL confirmed that red noses were in breach of licensing regulations but they did not object to them appearing on taxis and private hire vehicles.

In 'The FLAG' No.52 it was reported how licencing regulations were rigidly applied when Union Jacks were displayed during the Gulf War, "In a bid to reduce the possibility of racial tension" ' according to the council.

Hyndburn Council are a bunch of hypocrites, nothing more, nothing less.

THIRTY PRESTON youngsters, aged 12 to 15, are to go to the Scottish Highlands for a week of outdoor activities aimed at promoting harmony between ethnic groups.

The youngster's trip has been arranged by Preston Police and the Racial Equality Council. The youngsters will be accompanied by a Police Officer, Housing Department workers and staff from the Racial Equality Council.

The trip was announced in the same week that the record crime figures were released. Wouldn't it make more sense for the Police Force to use their resources for the solving or prevention of crime rather than dabbling in the Race Relations minefield.

HIS MASTER'S VOICE

IT WAS with a considerable degree of sadness that I heard the news that His Master's Voice Records are to abolish the trade mark that has adorned their products for longer than I've been around.

You know the one I mean - the picture of a little dog seated in front of the horn of an old-fashioned gramophone, listening to his master's voice. Now it has been decided that it is too archaic and has outlived its usefulness - a bit like me, I suppose.

However, it's not all bad news for it now seems likely that another old and infinitely dirtier dog is to disappear. I refer, of course, to the impending de-selection of Snivelling Syd Bidwell, the appalling Labour MP for the Southall-Hindustan Autonomous Republic.

This Bidwell person has represented the alien infestation for so long by employing the simple expedient of displaying fawning adulation towards coloured immigrants and bitter hostility towards British nationalism - even to the extent of inciting violence against it.

This, naturally, earned him the unstinting support of the Indian Workers' Association and assured his survival in Parliament since Indians can be positively guaranteed to vote along racial lines and support anything anti-British, while the remaining Whites diminishing in number and totally demoralised, are effectively disenfranchised. Thus Bidwell contrived to prosper while his country went down the drain - the two events being not exactly unconnected.

Now the Indian Workers' Association, alias the Labour Party, burgeoning in strength and arrogance, have decided that they no longer need their dirty little white dog to yap on their behalf and that in future his master's voice will be heard. For the favourite to succeed Snivelling Syd as the representative of this part of Britain is none other than Mr Pierra Khabra, President of the Indian Workers' Association.

I suppose some will say that this is poetic justice. I disagree. If there was any justice in the world, Snivelling Syd would not be de-selected - he would be disembowelled.

There comes a time when the master of every dirty dog has to come to terms with the fact his cur has become too old and mangey - that, in short, it has been around too long. But how long is too long?

In the case of 74 year old Snivelling Syd Bidwell this presents no problem. He has lived exactly 74 years too long.

SELF-HATRED

THE RECENT reported upsurge of Anti-Semitism in the newly-liberated or, perhaps, newly-debauched countries of Eastern Europe has had its wholly predictable outcome.

Jewish leaders, it is said, have called for an education programme to instil into Eastern Europe a proper sense of guilt and a true appreciation of Gentile wickedness.

Quite right too. I can vouch for the fact that we have not had a holocaust series on TV or a programme about the persecution of innocent Jewish martyrs by Gentile fiends for at least - oh, let me see now - several minutes.

I suppose that it is to redress this shameful imbalance that ITV, that relies for its advertising revenue on someone or other, is showing a series called "The Longest Hatred"; one of inordinate length and harrowing detail which, to my shame, I must admit to having avoided like the plague.

However, out of a sense of duty I do read the programme notes published in the newspapers and I see that the latest episode of this matzos opera is concerned with "anti-Semitism in the Arab World".

Well now; I have long realised that the showbiz folk who are our opinion-moulders and educators are full-time practising morons and ignoramuses of the lowest degree but I would have thought that even such a cretinous crew as they would have known that Arabs are Semites.

We all know that "Arab unity" is a sick joke and that the greatest pleasure any Arab can find in this world is slitting another Arab's throat or stabbing him in the back.

But do these newly-discovered "Anti-Semites" actually hate themselves? If they do I owe them an apology for they display a level of good taste that I haven't given them credit for.

The Ted Budden Column

Ted Budden was a founder member of the National Front. In his column he gives his view of the world.

His comments and observations do not necessarily reflect NF Policy.

INVESTMENT IN CHAOS

I SEE that Polish President Lech Walesa, famous patriot and former union leader, has been paying us a visit. It seems that the Poles, like all other Eastern Europeans, are grievously disappointed that the only benefits that the West has bestowed on them since they embraced something called democracy are rampant crime, debt, drug addiction, AIDS, prostitution and public pooftering. It seems that Mr Walesa was after something more substantial and was pleading with British industrialists to invest in Poland.

Alas poor Lech. I fear he'll have to join the queue.

For also in Britain just recently has been S.African President De Klerk, also to plead for British investment in S.Africa.

De Klerk, of course, has become world famous for his public breast beating, grovelling and snivelling act and so desperate is he to curry favour with the enemies of the White race that he has even tried to ingratiate himself with Neil "Poison Peanut" Kinnock and suffered the ignominy of being patronised by the foul wretch. Now that really is desperation.

I would have thought that De Klerk would have been wary of foreign investment in view of its past track record. It was foreign companies, after all, who having "invested" in S.Africa in order to exploit its pool of cheap Black labour, then decided that they would force the S. Africans to yield to government by Black savages by means of "Dis-investment". Having thus ruined the S.African economy and demonstrated the power of capitalism to force any sovereign government to bend the knee, big business now refuses to invest in S.Africa again because of the inevitable anarchy and chaos that government by Black savages would bring.

So if Lech Walesa values Polish independence he should bear S.Africa in mind when he touts for British investment.

We on the other hand need have no such worries. On past performance, there is absolutely no danger whatsoever that British investors will invest in Britain.

FAT BOY WINS AGAIN

I SUPPOSE we all heaved a sigh of relief when the Government announced that they would be reducing the Poll Tax by £140 this year. On reflection, however, most of us realised that this also meant that fat Tories with great big fat wallets living in great big houses would also be getting the reduction and be spared the agony of having to cough up their fair share as they did under the old rating system.

It all had to be paid for of course, so instead of increasing income tax for the wealthy the Government decided to increase VAT by 2.5%. This bears heavily on all of us, rich and poor alike, whether we can aford to pay it or not, and there is no rebate for the poor as there was under the Poll Tax. So the Government robbed Peter to pay Peter while Paul did very nicely thankyou.

One aspect of this act of Government generosity that seems to have escaped most people's attention is that VAT is not really regarded as a tax at all - it is seen to be more in the nature of an Act of God.

Thus it does not increase inflation, as measured by the Retail Price Index, in the way that the old rating system or the Poll Tax did. Thus, by shifting the burden from local tax to VAT, the Government has, by an amazing sleight of hand, reduced inflation at a stroke.

Add to this the reduction in mortgage rates, which will benefit virtually no old age pensioners at all, and come November there may well be a cosmetically reduced RPI which will show only about half the underlying or true rate of inflation.

It is in November, of course, that the future increase in old age pensions is fixed - at the RPI rate of inflation not the true rate.

Thus the Government will once more be able to short-change the old folk who exist on our already pathetically inadequate state pension.

Yet every cloud has silver lining - for those with plenty of silver already.

The reduction in real terms of the pension will enable the Government to offer future tax cuts.

With an Autumn election a distinct possibility, it may all be over before the many headed realise that they've been conned yet again.

Makes My Blood Boil

AS REQUESTED in last month's copy of The FLAG, I telephoned Benetton's Advertising Agency.

After a lot of hot air I got through to the women concerned and read the following statement: "Your hoarding adverts showing a multi-racial group of children is a gross insult to all our war dead who died to prevent this country from being invaded. I will never buy anything produced by your company".

There was a stunned silenced on the other end as I completed the message giving them my name and address. The amount of race-treason being committed in this country makes my blood boil.

Just Adding Salt to the Wound!

I WAS pleased to see the article "Benetton's Affront to Britain" in the April 1991 issue of The FLAG. I was going to write to you myself about this very advertisement, but you beat me to it!

You did miss one important point, however. Their campaign slogan is NOT "The United Colours of Benetton" but "The United COLORS of Benetton". Please note that we are subjected to the American spelling of the word 'colours', just to add salt to the wound.

Why do we have to put up with this treatment? All NF members should make Benetton's Advertising Agency aware of their displeasure.

Why Was No Action Taken?

I HAVE just read in The Times newspaper that during the Gulf War ethnic minority radio stations in West Yorkshire were calling for a Jihad - Holy War against British and American targets including civilians.

How on earth was this allowed to happen and why was no action taken. During the last war anyone transmitting pro-German propaganda would have been tracked down and arrested and detained under 18B, yet Asian Air, Asian Paradise Radio, Eastern Community Radio and Apniawaaz (Asian Voice) were calling Moslems in Britain to civil disorder each night between midnight and 4am.

A friend of mine with the West Yorkshire Police says there were disturbances in Bradford, Dewsbury and Batley but that the Police were ordered to put a media block on the trouble so that it would not escalate.

I'm appalled that such things can go on in Britain today. It has stirred me to consider joining the National Front and helping make the British people aware of what is going on in their country.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

"When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them".

Chapter 2,
Verses 1 to 4.

● TO GIVE US A BRITISH FUTURE: The NF must protect impressionable minds.

We Have a Duty to Guide and Protect our Youngsters!

ALREADY KNOWING the implications created by the Third World populace invasion of our country - higher taxes, less jobs, rising crime, less living space and the change in our culture - one main alarming aspect of their arrival has apparently gone unnoticed.

That is the change in attitude of the White people to them, especially that of the young, as they grow and mingle together. Young Whites seem more open to accepting them as neighbours which is alarming and doesn't benefit the Nationalist cause. Children especially in their early teens are very impressionable and many think Blacks are fashionable and tend to be drawn into their culture, their brands of music and clothing as well as the casual attitude to life that is indicative of the Negro culture.

The point I am trying to make is that we have a duty to guide and protect our younger generation, making sure that love of, and pride in, one's country is instilled in them. If we fail in this task, the battle to save our country and race will also be lost. More and more people nowadays are aware of conservation and environmental issues, but are at the moment blind to the fact that our very race needs conserving or it will disappear in the next two to three hundred years!

It is our job to see that this never happens, so that future generations of British children may grow up to be proud of their race, culture and traditions.

Rule the People.
Rule the National Front.
Rule Britannia!

It's Your Money He's Giving Away

"WE NEED action and we need it now - these people are cold and hungry". Anyone who heard these words from John Major on the early evening news of April 16th could have easily been misled into thinking that at last he was about to do something for the thousands of people who are forced to sleep rough on the streets of Britain every night, or maybe some help for our OAPs who have to survive on a pittance after years of service to our country.

No such luck! The grey man in the grey suit was outlining his latest plan to drop more new top quality sleeping bags, tents and food to the latest horde of Third World parasites who have adopted the all too familiar 'pathetic face and hands out for more' stance. All this at a time when teenagers forced from home by Tory Government legislation, queue up for a cup of soup before climbing back into a cardboard box with a thin blanket for cover.

BRITONS, GET OFF YOUR KNEES - IT'S YOUR HARD-EARNED MONEY HE'S GIVING AWAY! Money that should be used to look after our own people in need.

Peter Ford,
Sheffield.

● BETABAKE: Not for Immigrants

It's Interesting - Honest!!

I BET you have not had one of the attached sent to you before! It's a label from a bread wrapper.

It is interesting - honest!. Note where it says "Betabake is freshly baked using unbleached flour. Betabake provides essential fibre, protein and vitamins to thousands of Britons every day."

Now how many products on sale in shops every day actually mention these islands and our indigenous folk in racial terms? Not many! There I said it was interesting! Maybe a product that is worth the support of NF members?

STONEHENGE £6.50
By Atkinson. The most impressive and ancient monument in the British Isles, but how was it built, by whom and for what purpose.

NORSE MYTHS & LEGENDS £4.30
by C. Evans and A. Millard. This profusely illustrated book is an excellent introduction to the legends of the North giving easy to read explanations of the basis of the myths, how the world began, how it will end, and the facets of the gods.

EGIL'S SAGA £4.95
Demon, killer, drunkard and poet, lawyer and farmer, Egil is the most individual and paradoxical character to emerge from the Icelandic sagas.

ARTHUR'S BRITAIN £7.45
By Leslie Alcock. This remarkable book assembles all that is known or can be deduced about the most shadowy period of British history since the Roman occupation and about its legendary hero.

THE HOBBIT £3.40
By J.R.R. Tolkein. The famous tale of the heroism of a very ordinary hobbit against the terrors of the unknown and of the dragon under the hill.

1984 ..... £3.95
By George Orwell. The proletariat, the bureaucrats and the rulers - a vivid account of socialism and state control. The year may have passed us by but the book remains a classic tale set in a totalitarian Britain.

THE BROTHERHOOD £4.50
By Stephen Knight. Who exactly are Freemasons? Why are they so incredibly secretive? Is Freemasonry a charitable organisation with a bit of mumbo-jumbo thrown in or does it represent something altogether more sinister?

A HISTORY OF THE SAS REGIMENT £3.60
By John Strawson. A comprehensive account of how the SAS evolved from an unconventional handful of men operating successfully behind enemy lines in Africa, into the disciplined professionals of today.

JACK THE RIPPER £3.60
By Stephen Knight. This book makes out a very credible case for the identity of this most famous murderer. It also includes intrigue at the highest level in our country. Is this the real story? Judge for yourself.

● IAN WOOSNAM: He's done it!

ENGLAND DO IT AGAIN!

WHEN IAN Woosnam holed the seven-foot putt on the 18th green at Augusta, Georgia, to take the US Open he became the fourth successive British winner of the American Masters after Faldo (twice) and Lyle.

OK, British golfers get ridiculously high financial rewards for their labours, but the likes of Woosnam, Faldo, Lyle and Jacklin before them are great ambassadors for Britain and no doubt contribute their fair share in tax to the Exchequer.

CULTURE

THE NEWS that Widnes Rugby League club's West Indian player Martin Offiah has indicated, along with his fellow countryman, Ellery Hanley, that he would like to play American Football is welcome and not surprising.

It's all a matter of culture you see. The Caribbean has got a heck of a lot more in common with all the coke-a-cola, carnival-type hype surrounding Grid-Iron than it has with Billy Boston, Up 'n Unders and Featherstone Rovers on a cold, wet November afternoon, the hallmarks of English Rugby League!

RIGHT IDEA

ENGLAND'S ASSISTANT manager, Lawrie McMenemy has the right idea when it comes to the motivation of England's football team. He says that before matches Land of Hope and Glory should be played with the words displayed on the Wembley scoreboards so that everyone can join in.

Italian Scene Will Ruin Gazza

IT LOOKS as if Britain's long-suffering football supporters are going to be kicked in the teeth yet again with Paul Gascoigne, the the best thing that has happened to British football in the last 15 years, being dispatched to Italy to bail Tottenham Hotspur PLC out of their £12 million debt.

How the Directors of Spurs managed to get themselves into such a mess remains a mystery but it's a scandal that because of their bad management the loyal Tottenham supporters are being forced to suffer. Terry Venables has the right idea - when a football club is in financial trouble you shouldn't sell your best players, you should sack the board, (in the case of Tottenham PLC buy them out) and replace them with people who are prepared to put money into the club to get it back on a sound footing again.

As the Midland Bank, itself in dire financial straits after having to write-off vast sums of money stupidly loaned to the Third World, calls in the Spurs loan, flogging Gazza looks the only answer to the present short-sighted board.

The player himself is really just the gentile meat in the salt beef sandwich. With the Spurs chairman, a gentleman named Nat Solomon wanting his pound of flesh and Gascoigne's agents Melvyn Stein and Lenny Lazarus wanting theirs, the innocent lad from Gateshead has been well and truly shechited.

Paul Gascoigne will hate Italy and the experience will ruin him for good as a soccer player. When he comes back, which will probably be sooner rather than later and under a cloud like Jimmy Greaves in the 60's, Gazza will lost have lost his greatest quality - his child-like enthusiasm for the game of football.

● GAZZA: Child-like enthusiasm.

● FASHANU: Homosexual footballer

QUICK BATHS AT SOUTHALL

BLACK FASH is back in football! Only month's ago The FLAG was informing it's readers that no self-respecting club would have anything to do with Justin Fashanu, the West Indian homosexual, yet now a club has signed him up!

Southall FC from the Vauxhall League Division Two South have taken the plunge and signed the shirtlifter/shortdropper who gained fame before his homosexual revelations with Norwich City.

Dilip Patel who makes the half-time chapatis said that Fashanu had settled in well. "He is such a nice fellow although since his arrival the aftermatch communual bath has become much shorter. When Mr Fashanu gets in, everyone else gets out!".

PUTTING INTO RACING

● JIM OLD: Horses before profit

RACE HORSE trainer, Jim Old has carved his niche in British racing because he's a man that puts the welfare of his horses before anything else, something very rare indeed in today's industry where profit is all important.

Famous for bringing back horses that were thought to be finished Jim Old believes is meticulous preparation and plain old-fashioned patience, horses in his stable with only run when they are ready and the conditions suit them.

Mole Board, one of the classiest but unluckiest horses in training broke a three-year winnerless spell when winning the three mile Keith Prowse Long Distance Hurdle at Ascot last month. The 9 year-old who was fourth behind Morley Street in this year's Champion Hurdle finally rewarded Old and loyal owner Wally Sturt, winning when the race conditions and going were right for him.

Racing should be about people like Jim Old and Wally Sturt, in the business for what they can do for it - not like Ladbokes and Co., in the business for what they can get out of it!
